SENATOR BOB LA FOLETTE WAS A WEEK-END VISITOR

In company with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wurlitzer of San Francisco, Senator Robert M. La Follette arrived at Pine Inn Friday and remained until Sunday.

This was the senator's first visit to this section of California and he quite fell in love with Carmel.

In 1918-19 he spent some time in La Jolla, however.

ANOTHER RESTAURANT; CARMEL STILL GROWING

Nearly every week during the past year, Carmel Sun has had the pleasure of announcing the coming of new enterprises to Carmel. This week, we introduce the Dolores Inn, a new restaurant owned by Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Obrion (accented on the first syllable), and located at Dolores and Eighth in the Byron Newell house.

Mr. and Mrs. Obrion come from Hollywood, though they have spent the past few months here, looking for a location.

The Sun joins with the rest of Carmel in bidding them welcome.

CARMEL TAXI AND BRAIDA CAR CLASH

Louis Tomlin and Mrs. Josephine Odella of Carmel were slightly injured when a car driven by Marcella Braida and a taxicab driven by Tomlin tangled at the entrance of the Carmelite Mission. The accident occurred when Mrs. Braida attempted to turn at that point. The two drivers disagree as to whether the proper signal was given.

WORK PROGRESSING ON BRIDGE NEAR CARMEL

A large crew of men are working on the new concrete bridge just south of Carmel. Quite a lot of attention is being attracted by the work since reinforced concrete piling is being sunk into the ground to support the main structure of the bridge. The average person would say it was impossible to drive a concrete pillar into the ground but such is not the case in this work. The pillars are hexagonal in shape, about twenty-four inches in diameter and something like twenty-five feet long. They are tapered at one end and heavily reinforced with steel rods and are driven just the same as wooden piling. Most astonishing, there is not the slightest cracking or chipping of the huge columns under the terrific impacts of a steam pile driver. A wooden cap is fitted over the end of the concrete to receive the blows of the driver but otherwise the work is handled the same as other pile driving. After the piles are sunk as far as possible to drive them, the tops are cut away until all are even by drilling a hole in the column and blasting the concrete away after which the steel rods are sawed to proper length.

FIREMEN WILL DRILL HALF HOUR EARLIER

When you hear the fire whistle at seven these Thursdays evenings instead of the accustomed 7:30, do not be alarmed. The usual change to one half hour earlier took place last Thursday evening and will continue until the days lengthen.

TERESINA, SPANISH DANCER NEXT OF WINTER SERIES

Judging from the inquiries about the Spanish dancer, Teresina, who features the second concert of the Carmel Music Society on December 9, the Sunset School Auditorium will be crowded to the doors.

Word comes from New York of excited and enthusiastic comment on the appearance of the beautiful Senorita in that city. The grace, the atmosphere of traditional Spain created by the beauty and color of the costumes the charm of Teresina's beauty and personality—all combine to arouse her audiences to a high pitch of enthusiasm.

Accompanying Teresina is a guitarist and pianist. The public seat sale opens in the Denny-Watrous gallery on Wednesday, November 29.

MACON HOVERED NEAR GAVE CARMEL A TREAT

Hovering over the water off the coast here, the Macon last Friday gave Carmelites a treat and all turned out en masse to view her silvery grace. Once before, she passed near but the opportunity for seeing the huge craft was not so perfect.

SOLEMN BENEDICTION TO HONOR BIRTHDAY

In celebration of the 220th birthday of Father Serra, there will be Solemn Benediction at the Old Mission at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Father Gay of Monterey will give the talk.

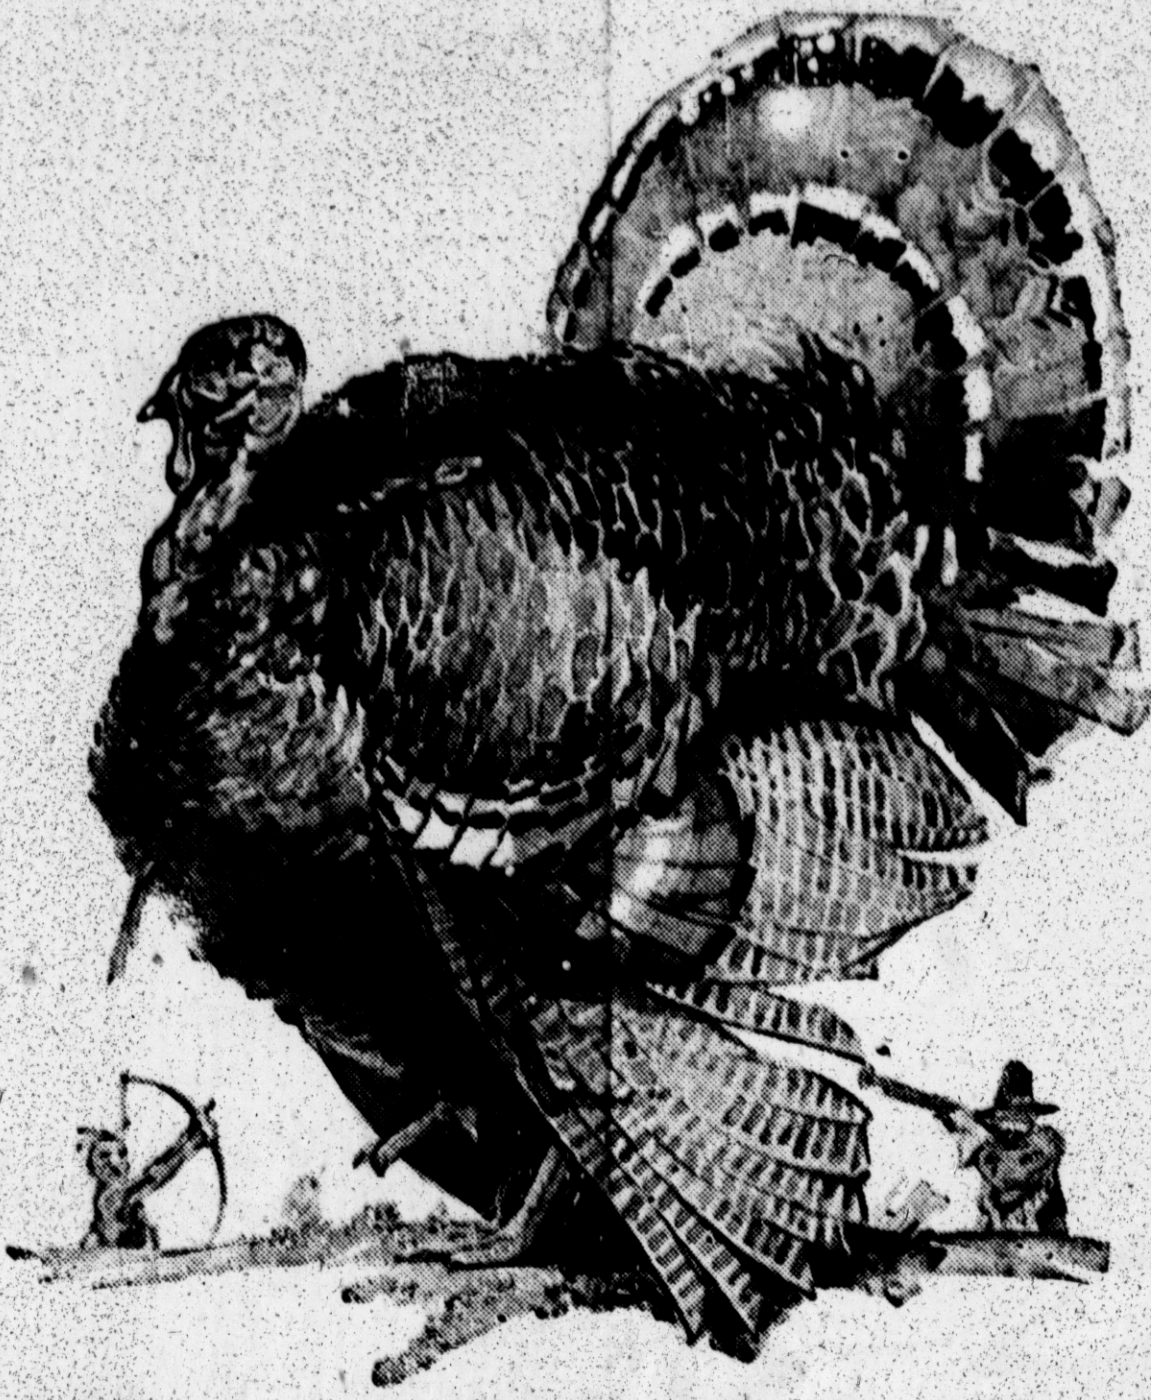

An invitation has been extended to the school children to visit the Mission on that day, which will be open to them all during the afternoon.

PACIFIC GROVE PAPER FROM MORGAN'S HANDS

With last week's issue of the Pacific Grove Tribune, announcement was made by Oscar R. Morgan that he had resold the paper to William Gould from whom he purchased it two years ago.

STILL IMPROVING

Mrs. Perry Newberry is still improving as a result of an operation performed more than a week ago and great hopes are now held for her complete recovery.

President Roosevelt's Thanksgiving Proclamation

"I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, do set aside and appoint Thursday the thirtieth day of November, 1933, to be a day of Thanksgiving for all our people.

"May we on this day in our churches and in our homes give humble thanks for the blessings bestowed upon us during the year past by Almighty God.

"May we recall the courage of those who settled a wilderness, the vision of those who founded the nation, the steadfastness of those who in every succeeding generation, have fought to keep pure the ideal of equality of opportunity, and hold clear the goal of mutual help in time of adversity.

"May we ask guidance in more surely learning the ancient truth that greed and selfishness and striving for undue riches can never bring lasting happiness or good to the individual or to his neighbors.

"May we be grateful for the passing of dark days; for the new spirit of dependence one on another; for the closer unity of all parts of our wide land; for the greater friendship between employers and those who toil; for a clearer knowledge by all nations that we seek no conquests and ask only honorable engagements by all peoples to respect the lands and rights of their neighbors; for the brighter day to which we can win through by seeking the help of God in a more unselfish striving for the common bettering of mankind.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Franklin D. Roosevelt."

SNAILS FOR PETS? NO?

FEED THEM CARROTS

Unless, of course, you want to keep your snails for pets, here is a good way to be rid of them, according to Mrs. Barnett of the Homestead Cafe.

Grind carrots very fine, cover with arsenate of lead, then take an old spoon and spread under the plants infested with snails, being sure to put it out of reach of birds. All that remains is to sweep up the carcasses.

Mrs. Barnett should know since she raises as pretty flowers in her garden as can be found in Carmel. At present she is devoting her time to getting a good bed of cinerarias started.

RED CROSS WORKERS ARE MUCH PLEASED

Red Cross workers having as their goal $3,000 are delighted with the response from Carmel people. To date $2765.00 has been secured and since the drive lasts until after Thanksgiving, it is likely that the sum will exceed the $3,000.

It is to be hoped that it will. Every dollar donated to the Red Cross means that some one who can not help himself can be helped by others.

Carmel people have never been backward in assisting the less fortunate and they will not fail to give every cent they can in this drive, even though the goal is near.

If you have been missed, your donation will be gladly accepted at the administration office.

PLAY READING GROUP HAS ANOTHER MEETING

"The First Mrs. Fraser," by St. John Ervine was the play enjoyed by the play reading group at Pine Inn Monday night. Another large crowd was present to hear the following readers:

Mrs. Blamer, Mary Henderson, Ted Kuster, Philip Remer, Tom Crosthwaite, Ida Mae Hyde, Jack Schroeder and Mrs. Seguin.

Next Monday night the play will be "Quality Street," by James Barry.

WHAT WELL DRESSED DANCER WILL WEAR

The question is not, of course, whether you are going to the Old Fashioned Dance given by the Old Mission Guild December 2, but what you will wear.

Those who are already planning their costumes have chosen periods from Colonial times to the gay nineties.

There'll be some good imitations there of the Mae West figure, Civil War belles will curtsy and Martha Washingtons will look haughtily at their fellow dancers.

But whatever your costume you are going to have a good time. If you don't wish to dance, you may play cards or games. You will be provided for.

Mrs. Robert Elliott (nee Virginia Rockwell) arrived Wednesday evening from her home in Calamona to visit until Sunday with her mother, Mrs. J. L. Rockwell.

BAND OF GYPSIES TO BE AT COMMUNITY FAIR

The Gypsies will tell you fortunes and will dance for you and entertain you at the Community Church bazaar Friday night. Here's a secret, don't breathe it to a soul. A real palmist and card reader, Miss Fannie Reeves will be there to look into the future for you.

There will also be tangoing and a lot of other things, as well as music by Fenton Foster's Glee club.

Indeed, Friday night will be a gala night and the committee in charge will be looking for you at the church. Any time after 2 p. m. the bazaar will be open.

NEW CLINIC WILL OPEN NEXT SATURDAY, 25TH

According to Mrs. William Temple, president of the association, the new medical clinic sponsored by the Monterey County Nurses' association, working with the physicians and dentists, will open Saturday, November 25, in the Herald building, Monterey.

For those who wish information as to the functioning open house will be held from 2:30 to 4:30 tomorrow afternoon.

WORK PROGRESSES

The Carmel-San Simeon highway nears completion and will probably be ready for the official opening in early spring.

At present the crews, one working south and one working north are within about three miles of each other.

MICHEL PENHA AND LALA GREEN BATES WED

Coming as a delightful surprise to their many friends on the Peninsula is the announcement of the marriage of Michel Penha and Lala Green Bates on Saturday last, November 18, in Carson City.

Good wishes and affectionate felicitations are pouring in from all points to the bride and groom, for both are well known and well loved in the community. Lala Green Bates is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sumner Greene of Carmel, while Michel Penha is a Hollander, a cellist of international fame whose place as cellist in the Neah-Kah-Nie String Quartet brought him to Carmel some two years ago. Later he became director of the Monterey Peninsula orchestra and is now a member of the Parlow-Penha quartet, also.

The Penhas plan to take a house in Carmel, spending their week-ends here during the winter.

RUSSIAN AND GYPSY SONGS AT GALLERY

A few weeks ago a few people in Carmel had a chance to hear Saveli Walevitch sing some Russian and Gypsy folk songs, and from that evening in one of the studios here came the demand that has brought forth the announcement of a recital by Mr. Walevitch in the Denny-Watrous Gallery on Friday evening, December 1.

Saveli Walevitch figures among the first of the Russians who have introduced to America the old Russian folk songs and gypsy ballads. With him it is a work of devotion, in order to preserve this primitive art which, with the growth of western culture, is rapidly vanishing even from Russia itself.

Walevitch has given over two hundred and fifty recitals within the last three years making twenty major tours in the United States and Europe during that period. He has appeared in many colleges and universities, including Vassar, Smith, Barnard, Columbia, Boston, and many others. He appears at Mills College shortly after his recital in Carmel. Seats are on sale at the gallery.

CHILDREN MUST HEAR CONCERT DECEMBER 15

The orchestra is humming bits from Hansel and Gretel, which is the music being used for the ballet by the Ruth Austin dancers which is to be a feature of the Children's Concert of the Monterey Peninsula Orchestra, Michel Penha conducting, on December 15, in the Sunset School auditorium.

This will be the second Children's concert presented by the Carmel Music Society during the year. Members of the orchestra are making every effort not to miss a rehearsal in order to be ready for "the night before Christmas, and all through the house, not a creature was stirring, not even a mouse"—which is the rhyme on which the ballet is worked out. Costumes are being made by Mrs. Eugene Marble, and Ruth Austin is having extra Saturday morning rehearsals for her dancers.

In addition to the ballet Mr. Penha is conducting the orchestra in "Shepherds Hey" by Grainger, the Fingal's Cave Overture, by Mendelssohn, and a number of other shorter works which will captivate the fancy of children and adults.

As before, the Carmel Music Society is making the prices within the reach of all—twenty-five cents for children and fifty cents for adults. It is hoped that the community will see that every child in Carmel has a chance to go to the Children's Concert on Friday, December 15.

After the rehearsal on this Sunday evening, November 26, all rehearsals will be closed until the concert on December 15.

Mrs. M. J. Hamlin's sister, who has been visiting her at Sundial Court, Seventh and Monte Verde has returned to her home in Oakland.

INTERESTING CARMEL

Interesting things about Carmel
WILLIAM P. SILVA WILL HOLD EXHIBITION
NEXT SATURDAY

An exhibition of paintings of more than ordinary interest has been announced by William P. Silva at his gallery, on Scenic Drive, next Saturday afternoon when Mr. Silva will display the pictures that attracted state wide attention in his one man show at Stanford University the past month.

There are thirty-four canvases in the group, ranging in size from 8x10 inches to 30x40 and divided into two general types of paintings; the soft languorous, misty scenes from Mr. Silva's old home in South Carolina and the more brilliant and colorful scenes from the artist's present home, California.

The California pictures show that beautiful country in all its moods from sunrise to sunset; the misty veil of early morning, the cool dark pools of the branches shaded with moss draped trees and dense foliage and vines. Of these pictures Harriette Kirshav, leading writing in the Savannah Morning News said:

"To own a Silva is to own a distinctive work of art. He has the ability to paint that veil of silken sheen flung by southern skies over this warm golden portion of the earth. * * * One has but to live with a Silva to love it, to appreciate it."

Mr. Silva's California pictures are none the less interesting however, and possibly more so to show California from the burning deserts to the sea with its ancient adobe of the early days down to the present with its modern homes and gardens. There are pictures of Carmel dunes, beautiful Point Lobos, colorful sweeping hills, twisted cypress trees, great lush live oaks, eucalyptus groves, farm scenes and everything that makes California what it is, in Mr. Silva's work with the faultless feeling of a master. Of the California pictures, western critic, Anthony Anderson writing in the Los Angeles Times says:

"Silva has an unusual person's feeling for those happy yet delicate moods of nature, which perhaps better than other aspect of the earth's beauty, lend themselves for happy and harmonious pictures. In the whole group there is not one which lacks the subtle silvery charm that delights the eye and leads the mind into happy reflections."

Everyone should go to see Mr. Silva's exhibition, whether they can buy or not.

ROBLES DEL RIO CLUB

The Robles del Rio Club is perhaps one of the major places of interest in Carmel Valley. Situated miles from Carmel, it is a popular retreat for Peninsula folk in search of few hours' recreation away from town.

Built on the top of a sunn hill among a few oaks in the beautiful Robles del Rio tract the Pompeian swimming pool at comfortable club house commands a view of the whole valley. A go course with riding stables nearby makes it convenient for the sportsman. Deer graze unconcerned on the greens. There is an outdoor fireplace and grill by the swimming pool for midnight swimmer parties.

The club proper is complete with dining room and large lounge room with its huge windows looking over the valley below. The lounge room is fitted with radio, card tables, etc which combine with the great fireplace to make it suitable for dancing and other forms of indoor recreation. Buffet supper and dancing have been very popular in the past with the young set.

Many people will be pleased to know that the managers, Oscar Viers and Robert L. Wilson, have decided to keep the club open through the winter season due to many requests made by guests. It is open to the public. Persons wishing to use the club for entertaining have only to notify the management a few days in advance.

Alvin Marvin, arrested in Monterey, Sunday night, was returned to Salinas to face a charge of violating parole.

William Gillespie was found guilty of possessing undersized abalones and given a fine of $50 or 25 days in the county jail by Judge Ray Baugh.

Monterey officers are stirred up again over enforcing the anti-odor ordinance against canneries. Complaints have been made by many citizens of that city.

After being married exactly seven years to a day a divorce complaint was filed by Alice Summer Bates against Calvin W. Bates in Reno. They were married in Carmel November 20 and have two children. Cruelty was the charge.

Jack Tani, Japanese fisherman, unexplainably leaped onto the net of the "Harold A", as it was being lowered to surround a school of sardines Thursday night, and was drowned off Davenport north of Santa Cruz.

Thad S. Lake, 48, Lakeside man who shot A. V. Glougie to death, was sentenced to serve a life term in the penitentiary. He will be eligible to a parole in seven to ten years.

William Callahan, 32, and Samuel Cogswell, 23, were bound over to superior court on a charge of robbery. B. Romangolo of Lakeside identified the men as pair who robbed him of $9 and fled with his automobile, leaving him gagged and bound beside a lonely East Monterey road.

Hubert Cairns of Pacific Grove who was injured by a Southern Pacific train in New Monterey is improving rapidly from a fractured skull and other injuries. Cairns was brakeman on the train. L. F. Christianson engineer and L. H. Johnson, conductor were also injured in the accident but less seriously.

The alertness of two Pacific Grove druggists this week saved the life of a despondent man who made an attempt to commit suicide. The stranger who refused to divulge his identity went to a drug store and asked for some arsenic to kill some rats. Clyde Dyke and Floyd Rogers suspicioned the man and instead of giving him the arsenic gave him a harmless white powder instead. Watching him after he left the store they saw him go into a barber shop and swallow the powder. The druggists called the police and when held for observation and questioned refused to divulge his name and gave as his excuse for the attempt to end his life "because he had forfeited the respect of his family."

Robert Houchin of Colorado and Joseph Davis of Oakland pleaded guilty to charges of vagrancy in Monterey police court Tuesday and were given thirty days in jail. The men were held over reports that they were attempting to sell new shirts and socks which it was thought might have been stolen.

Work on the 400 foot extension of the Monterey breakwater is going rapidly forward. The trestle is out 325 feet from the end of the 1850 foot sea wall and rock is being dumped on the project at the rate of 1500 tons per day. One hundred men are at work in Monterey and at the quarries where the rock is being mined. Work on the project will not be completed until the middle of the coming year.

Miss Anne Harding returned last Friday to Hollywood after spending a delightful vacation in Carmel. She made friends of all with whom she came in contact and purchased many pretty things from the shops here. She gave it as her opinion that Carmel had better hand craft shops than she had seen any place else and backs her statement by buying hand embroidered dresses hand woven ties and many other articles.

CARMEL BOYS ATTEND SCAVENGER PARTY

Henry Hasty wrote his mother, Mrs. Louise Hasty, this week that he, along with Bud Todd and Ray Draper, two other Carmel youths attended a "Scavenger" party given by Tanner Wilson at Santa Cruz Saturday night.

He wrote of the tasks that were set them and how they accomplished them. Henry had to secure a live chicken. He persuaded a farmer to lend him one. One of the other boys had to get an original signed poem from an English teacher. They promptly awoke the English teacher who good naturedly did as requested.

COMMUNITY CHURCH

Melvin C. Dorsett, Minister
9:45—Church school for cradle roll to junior age children. Excellent teachers. Valuable information.

11:00—Service of worship. An hour both interesting and inspiring. The quartet will sing "My Task" by E. L. Ashford. The theme of the hour is "Belief in Man." Whether you are inclined to be pessimistic about humanity in the present hour or not, you will find a challenge in this consideration of humnity.
6:30 to 8:00—J-O-Y Club. Fellowship period in charge of Paul Nye. In the discussion period the question, "What is Personality?" will be considered.

P. G. & E. DEMANDS

NEW RATE HEARING

Declaring the recent gas rate decision of the Railroad Commission was "unjust, unwarranted and unreasonable," the Pacific Gas and Electric company petitioned for a rehearing this week. The petition, containing more than fourteen pages, among other things recites:

That in 1929-30, when the company built its natural gas line to Kettleman it spent in excess of $30,000,000.

That during the same years it engaged in the manufacture of gas with a large capital investment.

That rates fixed at the completion of the natural gas line lowered costs to consumers 50 per cent and saved consumers $8,000,000 and that that saving will continue.

That during the three years period since natural gas was brought to the area affected by the Railroad Commission's decision a total saving of $25,000,000 has been made to the consumers.

The company also sets forth that the income it should properly have derived from its vast expenditures was $4,000,000 less than the rate was supposed to yield.

Of the commission's charge that the company should have voluntarily reduced its rates for the benefit of consumers, the company's reply says, "this is an unwarranted and unjust finding."

It also asserts that the "order and decision" will "deprive the company of its property and use thereof without due process of law."

"Said order and decision prescribes rates and charges on sale of gas by the company to the public which will not yield to the company cost of service," continues the petition.

It declared the commission failed to find a fair value of the company's property and that the rate base value should have been $114,000,000 and not $105,000,000.

"The rate base on historical value failed to consider or give any effect to costs of reproducing the properties," the petitioner claims.

The company protests that the commission did not allow it a $12,000,000 "going concern value" and that its working capital is in excess of $2,000,000 instead of $1,412,128 which the commission allowed.

The decision of the Commission last week pointed out that natural gas consumers in the territory served would be saved $2,100,000 by the reduction and ordered a cash refund to them retroactive to July 1 of this year, in the amount of $750,000.—San Francisco Examiner.

SCHOOL NOTES

There will be no school in Carmel next week due to teachers' institute to be held at Watsonville, and Thanksgiving holidays.

There will be no night classes next week at Sunset, due to the vacation and the gymnasium will not be used, giving a chance to recondition the floor.

An interesting student body assembly was held Friday morning, with Edward Ballam, president, in the chair. Raymond Brown spoke on the reorganization of the traffic squad, calling attention to the rules. Lee Van Atta reported for the clean-up committee and announced that little boxes have been made by the committee and painted green to be placed in strategic places about the play fields, in which the asked the children to place their trash instead of throwing in on the grounds. He stated that at the close of the day the boxes would be collected and the contents destroyed in the incinerator. Some fourth graders under the leadership of Stanley Tatum and Howard Levinson, gave a demonstration of traffic control. A sixth grade group under direction of Mrs. Frances Johnson gave a very lovely verse choir reading. Miss Hortense Berry, librarian, was present and announced the prize winners in the recent essay contest on "The Book I Have Enjoyed Most This Year," offered by the Carmel Library Board in order to educate the children in the use of the library.

Prizes awarded to: fourth grade, Edward Ricketts; fifth grade, Martin Artellan; sixth grade, Dorothy Jean Haasis; seventh grade, Jack Pelton; eighth grade, Merle Dorsett.

Honorable mention: 4th grade, Patricia Armstrong; Eleanor Johnston; fifth grade, Lillian Ohm, Harriet Hutton, Eleanor Hart, Joyce Thompson; sixth grade, Jacqueline Klein, Dorothy Smith, Jane Ellen Parker, Barclay Spencer; seventh grade, Jane Millis, Bob Farley, Hugh Smith, Carol Card, Bill Chapman, Roe Marie Mattimore, June Clark, Homer Levinson, Joyce Whitcomb, Paul Warrington, Emory Neilsen, Edgar Leslie, Betty Haskell, Jeanne Weill, Lee Van Atta; eighth grade, Jane Haskell, Spencer Kern, Buddy Hoffman, Raymond Brownell, Dorothea Dio Dawson, Joyce Uzzell, Barbara Haasis, Freer Gottfried, Betty Wilson, Robert Bello, Houston Hannon, Katherine Beaton, William Welsh, Edward Marble, Ethel Warrington, Elaine Bullock.

There will be another student assembly next Friday morning at 11:20 at which time the fifth graders will present a Thanksgiving pageant, "The Harvest Moon." This is the story of the awakening of the harvest moon when all the spirits representing the different history making epochs for which the nation is thankful appear. There will also be dancing and tumbling.

A visit to the art room this week found the youngsters busy, the seventh graders designing book covers and the eighth designing wall panels and screens. The sixth graders are making illustrations for their social studies. The walls are decorated with work by the young artists. By means of pictures, the high spots in history are impressed on the minds of the students.

Wallace Beery in "The Bowery"

By J. A. Kunstman
Beer, bustles, bicycles, balloon sleeves—"The Bowery." Uproarious fun, robust drama, gay nights and happy days in the wicked eighties and naughty nineties are features of "The Bowery," 20th Century's first picture, starring Wallace Beery, George Raft and Jackie Cooper, with Fay Wray and Pert Kelton, and it starts showing Sunday at the Carmel Theatre.

All the atmosphere of "the liveliest mile on the face of the globe," it is said, has been preserved for "The Bowery" by director Raoul Walsh. The action of the picture also includes the Park Row approach to Brooklyn Bridge, the old bridge itself as it was when Steve Brodie jumped from its center span, Brighton Beach and a score of other shots and scenes from "The Bowery" itself as it was in the days of yore.

John L. Sullivan, "Chuck" Connors, Stee Brodie and Carrie Nation, four real-life characters, appear in "The Bowery," all doing their stuff in approved Bowery style.

Mingling with the "Big Shots" of the nineties are the other denizens of the Bowery—sporting men and Peacock Alley beauties, Orientals from the Pell-Mott-Doyer Chinatown; tin-horn gamblers, wire-tappers, con-game workers, sailors, Bowery boys and girls, bar-flies, honky-tonk entertainers; and the picturesque human flotsam and jetsam of the Bowery the song writers romanticized in by-gone decades.

"The Bowery" is a United Artists release, adapted by Howard Eastabrook and James Gleason from the novel "Chuck Connors" by Michael Simmons and B. K. Solomon.

GOOD CARD AT PRESIDIO AT LAST NIGHT'S FIGHT

By Sports Editor

Last night a fair sized crowd of fight fans drove over the big hill. All the fights were good but the bout that stole the show was between Lavery and Baumgardner. Both boys fought every step of the way and it was called a draw. In the main event Kid Novak was no match for Rusty Westman, who won by a K.O. Dale Hawkins won from White Watkins in the semi-final.

Battling Bobs, the Presidio Bad Boy, had Harold McDonald on the floor in the first round but later led with his chin and the fight was over. Mac is one of the best boys on the coast.

Derry Berry beat Prince Cencino when his seconds threw in the towel. Jose Condez tagged Bud Naulty on the button in the second round. It was Bud's fight up to the K.O.

Jack Leeper won on a foul from Larry Wright in the second. Jimmy Hochhammer beat Dusty Rodney in the curtain raiser.

Will Fight in Salinas
Frank Dalton is matched with Louie Mays in Salinas next Tuesday night. Mays is the best boy Frank has met up to date. The first fight starts at eight thirty.

Mrs. Herman Crossman has been spending the week with her daughter, Jean Crossman, in Santa Barbara.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Edwards are moving to San Francisco where Mr. Edwards has taken a position. He has been with Pine Inn for some time and Mrs. Edwards was a stenographer in the late Mr. De Yoe's real estate office. Mr. Edwards' mother, Mrs. Jane Edwards is now in Berkeley.

W. O. Swain of New York is here to spend the winter with his mother, Mrs. J. O. Swain.

Miss Effie Smith of Madera is visiting her brother, Bob Smith, telegraph operator for the Western Union.

A CAMPING INCIDENT

By Ben Phillips

Once Henry and another lad rode forth to camp among the Peaks.

Two steeds of good repute they had, And confidence to last for weeks. But at the coming of dawn That broke their first night's balmy rest

They noticed that one horse was gone, Gone from the camp and mountain's crest.

They broke up camp and Henry said:

That two should walk instead of one, And packed and sent his steed ahead. Thus homeward was their trip begun.

But lo! as down the ridge's side Where many a deer had made his track

They crept, and in the distance spied Their horses doubtless coming back.

And sure enough the twain met twain, And tho the camping trip was o'er,

The boys were saved the trying strain

Of walking twenty miles or more. And whether something else or chance Brought this strange incident about

Was ne'er reckoned in advance, And still remains to figure out.

Jack Dalton's movie horse is working in Hollywood this week. Jack keeps his horse at Banning.

Mrs. H. J. Moss has returned home from a visit in Hollywood.
